

Domain Expertise (Technical)

Project Engineer	Domain 6
Domain Expertise	Pharmacy Informtics
No. of Requirements	1
Skill Sets	Knowledge of drugs compositions, active ingredients, formulation, combination generics, contraindications, drug dispensing process, Knowledge of regulatory processes and requirements of preparation, clinical trials, and approval/licensing of drugs, Knowledge of electronic/online drug databases, their searching, data entry and relationship management, Knowledge of drug related coding systems, Proficient in using computer and computer applications/utilities, ability to use documentation tools (Office Suite), Good interpersonal and communication skills, teaching/lecturing experience will be preferred
Job Profile	Responsible for studying/creating drug information models, Responsible for creation and maintenance of drug database in electronic format, Responsible for creation and maintenance of National Drug Extension / Standard, Assist in application design aspects related to ePharmacy, ePrescription, and related forms, roles, processes, Prepare reports, analysis, position papers, white papers, best practices on medical informatics related activities and operations